SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1858.

Congressional Convention.—When will it be held?—We do not hear anything further concerning the Congressional Convention for this district, proposed to be held next Thursday. Our opinion is that it will not be held on that day. It certainly ought not, as it is a matter of such uncertainty, and we know nothing about it. The Goshen Democrat agrees with us that the noce is too short, and the convention ought to be held at a later period. We have not noticed any thing on the subject in the other democratic papers in the district, and think it probable they have not received any notice of the proposed convention. We would recommend by all means to have it postponed a month or six weeks, and have ample notice given, that all may have a voice in selecting our candidate.

For—We are under obligations to Hon. C. Cass, our Representative in Congress, for valuable public documents.

Congress adjourned on Monday evening last, after a long and boisterous, but we cannot say useful or predictable session.

The Senate remained in extra session, on executive business, until Wednesday, when it adjourned.

Governor Bright's Nomination Confirmed!—The nomination of Gov. Jas. A. Wright, as Minister to Prussia, was sent in to the Senate on Monday; and promptly confirmed by that body in extra session.

We hope the Governor's many warm republican friends who have lately expressed some much solicitude for his appointment, will now feel easier. Those of his professing democratic friends who hoped to make political capital out of his rejection, will not trust their disapproving too much to heart. Gov. Wright has got a good appointment, in accordance with the earnest wishes of the Indiana democracy, and notwithstanding the many protests to the contrary. Old Buck has kept his faith, and sent the nomination to the Senate. This is right, and all ought to be satisfied. It was right that Wright should be appointed; he is the right man for the office, and Indiana had a right to expect his nomination. Buchanan did right in sending his name to the Senate, and that body has done right in confirming him. Wright is Minister to Prussia, and has a right to eat his corn dodgers in Berlin, for the next four years. It is all right together, and nobody has a right to complain.

Confirmation of Messrs. Bright and Fitch.—The Senate has finally confirmed the right of Messrs. Bright and Fitch, Senators from this State, to their seats, by a vote 30 to 23. The names of Mr. Douglas and his friend Broderick appear in the minority, along with Hale, Fessenden, Hamlin, Seward, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson, Durkee, and others of that stamp, in this second attempt to trample on our state sovereignty, and eject our Senators legally elected by a majority of our Legislature, in perfect accordance with the well known wish of an overwhelming majority of our people. Mr. Doug's notions of popular sovereignty appear to have undergone a lamentable and almost inexplicable change within the past few months.

Election District.—John U. Pettit was nominated by the republican convention Wednesday last for re-election to Congress from the 11th or "raiding district". On the 24th ballot he beat A. J. Harlan, his opponent, by about 12 votes. Pettit had already had two terms, and his crowning himself on the district for a third has stirred up considerable feeling among the friends of the other great men of that party in the district. It is doubtful whether he can secure his full party vote.

Mr. Crockett, of Huntington, is spoken off as likely to be selected by the democrats. He is a young man of fine talents, great popularity, and last but not least, of unswerving democracy. He will make a good race, and if elected will be an honor to his constituents.

Tenth District Congressional Nominations—Hon. James Hughes was unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress by the democratic convention on the 9th inst. He is a true democrat, who has faithfully discharged his duty to his constituents, and will be triumphantly re-elected.

A little squad of disaffected, soreheaded anti-lemonites, formerly acting with the democrats, urged on by the black republicans, met together at the same time and nominated George W. Carr. The design of this is not to elect Carr, of which there can be no hope, but to divide the democratic strength so as to secure the election of Dunn, the republican candidate. In this they will be disappointed, for no true democrat, whatever his views on the Leemon question, will allow himself to be thus used as a tool by the republicans; the day for that is gone by. Judge Hughes will beat both Carr and Dunn, and he deserves to do so.

The republicans in that district have nominated McKeas Dunn, a rank abolitionist, as their candidate.

A Dangerous Counterfeiter on the Ten-Dollar Bills—of the State Bank of Ohio, is in circulation, so well executed as to deceive the best judges. The only safety seems to be to refuse all notes of that denomination.

Swindle.—Bills have been put in circulation purporting to be the Orleans Bank at Canfield, in this state. The whole thing is an outrageous swindle, concocted by three scoundrels, named S. Cochran, who claims to be President, L. Scobey, Cashier, and Monroe, who represents the capitalists. There is no such bank, and the worthless who started it had no capital enough even to pay their rent and board, but sold the safe to raise funds for that purpose, and to take themselves away. It is truly enough the wildest of the wildcats which have ever infested the country, and we caution our readers against touching any of the notes; they are absolutely worthless.

New Election Precinct.—The County Commissioners of this county, at their recent session, established a new election precinct, to be known by the name of Bright Precinct, taken of the corners of St. Joe, Cedar Creek, Perry and Washington townships. It contains the part of St. Joe township lying west of the St. Joe River; sections 1, 12, 13, and 24 of the west side of Washington; sections 16, 17, 18 off the south east corner of Perry; and Parker Reserve, section 31, and a fraction of 32 of the southwest corner of Cedar Creek. James Clegg, Esq. of Washington township is appointed inspector of elections for the new precinct. The elections will be held at the house of Mr. Gallard.

This is a judicious arrangement, as the residents of the new precinct are so remote and so inconveniently situated from the usual places of holding elections in their several townships, that a large portion of them were usually prevented from voting. There are probably 100 voters in the precinct.

It must be borne in mind that this Precinct is only established for election purposes. For all township masters and business, the territory comprised in the precinct remains attached to its respective townships as heretofore.

COUNTY TAXES.—The Commissioners have levied the following taxes for Allen County for the ensuing year:

Court-house Tax,	15 cents on the $100.
Bridge Tax,	10 " "
Railroad & Co. Tax,	60 " "
The School Tax is 10 cents on the $100, and 50 cents poll tax.

It has been determined to erect a Court-house, and a tax for that purpose is levied; but it is not designed to commence the structure until two years' tax has been collected, so as to have the money on hand to pay for the work as it progresses. In this the commissioners have acted wisely and economically, and will thereby save thousands of dollars to the county. The Court-house can be erected for two-thirds the sum paid when in cash that it would cost if paid in County Orders.

Another Congressional Duel.—Messrs. Gwin of California and Wilson of Mass. had a flare-up in the Senate on Friday, leading to a challenge from Gwin and a refusal on the part of Wilson to accept. The matter was then referred to mutual friends, who succeeded in getting the necessary retractions and disavowals, and the affair was settled "honorably to both parties"—of course. These Congressional challenges are getting to be a ridiculous farce.

To Brigadier General M. Gribot, Adjutant General of the State of Louisiana:

—We are under obligations to Hon. C. Cass, our Representative in Congress, for valuable public documents.

Congress adjourned on Monday evening last, after a long and boisterous, but we cannot say useful or predictable session.

The Senate remained in extra session, on executive business, until Wednesday, when it adjoined.

Governor Bright's Nomination Confirmed!—

The nomination of Gov. Jas. A. Wright, as Minister to Prussia, was sent in to the Senate on Monday; and promptly confirmed by that body in extra session.

We hope the Governor's many warm republicans friends who have lately expressed some much solicitude for his appointment, will now feel easier.

Those of his professing democratic friends who hoped to make political capital out of his rejection, will not trust their disappointment too much to heart. Gov. Wright has got a good appointment, in accordance with the earnest wishes of the Indiana democracy, and notwithstanding the many protests to the contrary. Old Buck has kept his faith, and sent the nomination to the Senate. This is right, and all ought to be satisfied. It was right that Wright should be appointed; he is the right man for the office, and Indiana had a right to expect his nomination. Buchanan did right in sending his name to the Senate, and that body has done right in confirming him. Wright is Minister to Prussia, and has a right to eat his corn dodgers in Berlin, for the next four years. It is all right together, and nobody has a right to complain.

Confirmation of Messrs. Bright and Fitch.—

The Senate has finally confirmed the right of Messrs. Bright and Fitch, Senators from this State, to their seats, by a vote 30 to 23.

The names of Mr. Douglas and his friend Broderick appear in the minority, along with Hale, Fessenden, Hamlin, Seward, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson, Durkee, and others of that stamp, in this second attempt to trample on our state sovereignty, and eject our Senators legally elec-tected by a majority of our Legislature, in perfect accordance with the well known wish of an overwhelming majority of our people. Mr. Doug's notions of popular sovereignty appear to have undergone a lamentable and almost inexplicable change within the past few months.

Election District.—John U. Pettit was nominated by the republican convention Wednesday last for re-election to Congress from the 11th or "raiding district". On the 24th ballot he beat A. J. Harlan, his opponent, by about 12 votes. Pettit had already had two terms, and his crowning himself on the district for a third has stirred up considerable feeling among the friends of the other great men of that party in the district. COUNTY TAXES.—The Commissioners have levied the following taxes for Allen County for the ensuing year:

Court-house Tax, 15 cents on the $100.

Bridge Tax, 10 " "

Railroad & Co. Tax, 60 "

The School Tax is 10 cents on the $100, and 50 cents poll tax.

It has been determined to erect a Court-house, and a tax for that purpose is levied; but it is not designed to commence the structure until two years' tax has been collected, so as to have the money on hand to pay for the work as it progresses. In this the commissioners have acted mutual and economically, and will thereby save thousands of dollars to the county. The Court-house can be erected for two-thirds the sum which paid for in cash that it would cost if paid in County Orders.

Another Congressional Petition.—Messrs. Gwin of California and Wilson of Mass. had a flavor in the Senate on Friday, leading to a challenge from Gwin and a refusal on the part of Wilson to accept. The latter was then referred to mutual friends, who succeeded in getting the necessary retractions and disavowals, and the affair was settled honorably to both parties'—of course. These Congressional challenges are getting to be a ridiculous farce.

joined.

Governor Wright's Nomination Confirmed.—The nomination of Gov. Jos. A. Wright, as Minister to Prussia, was sent in to the Senate on Monday, and promptly confirmed by that body, "extra session," as it is called.

We hope the Governor's many warm republican friends who have lately expressed somewhat solicitude for his appointment, will now feel easier. Those of his party, democratic friends who hoped to make political capital out of his rejection, will not wonder at their disappointment too much to heart. Gov. Wright has got a good opportunity, in accordance with the earnest wishes of the Indiana democracy, to make up his mind, and to do what he can for his country. Old Black has kept his faith, and sent the nomination to the Senate. This is right, and all ought to be satisfied. It was right that Wright should be appointed; he is the right man for the office, and Indiana had a right to expect his nomination. Buchanan did right in sending his name to the Senate, and that body has done right in confirming him. Wright is Minister to Prussia, and has a right to be his own dogezer in Berlin, for the next four years. It is all right together, and nobody has a right to complain.

Confirmation of Messrs. Bright and Fitch.—The Senate has finally confirmed the right of Messrs. Bright and Fitch, Senators from this State, to their seats, by a vote 30 to 23. The names of Mr. Douglass and his friend Broderick appear in the majority, along with Hale, Fessenden, Harlan, Seward, Trumbull, Wade-Wilson, Durkee, and others of that stamp, in this daring attempt to trample on our state sovereignty, and eject our Senators legally elected, by a majority of our Legislature, in perfect accordance with the well known wish of an overwhelming majority of our people. Mr. Douglass's notions of popular sovereignty appear to have undergone a lamentable and almost incalculable change within the past few months.

Eleventh District.—John U. Pettit was nominated by the republican convention on Wednesday last, for re-election to Congress from the 11th or "adjoining" district. On the 24th, he met A. J. Harlan, his opponent, by about 12 votes. Pettit has already had two terms, and his crowning himself on the district for a third has stirred up considerable feeling among a friend of the other great men of that party in the district. It is doubtful whether he can secure his full party vote.

Mr. Crofton, of Huntington, is spoken off as likely to be selected by the democrats.

He is a young man of fine talents, great popularity, and last, but not least, of unswerving democracy. He will make a good race, and it is expected will be an honor to his constituents.

Third District Congressional Nominations.—Hon. James Hughes was unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress by the democratic convention on the 2d inst. He is a true democrat, has faithfully discharged his duty to his constituents, and will be triumphantly re-elected.

A little squad of disaffected, sordidly anti-lecomonites, formerly acting with the democrats, urged on by the black republicans, met together at the same time and nominated George W. Carr. The design of this is, not to elect Carr, of which there can be no hope; but to divide the democratic strength so as to secure the election of Dunn, the republican candidate. In this they will be disappointed, for no true democrat, whatever his views on the LeCompton question, will allow himself to be thus used as a tool by the republicans; the day that is gone by. Judge Hughes will beat both Carr and Dunn, and he deserves to do so.

The republicans in that district have nominated Mr. McKey Dunn, a rank abolitionist, as their candidate.

A dangerous Counterfeiter on the Tenth.—A bill of the State Bank of Ohio, is in circulation, so well executed as to deceive the best judges. The only safety seems to be to refuse all notes of that denomination.

Swindle.—Bills have been put in circulation purporting to be on the Orleans Bank's "Cancel," in this state. The whole thing is an outrageous swindle, concocted by three scoundrels, named S. Cochran, who claims to be President; L. Scobey, Cashier, and Monroe, who represents the capitalist. There is no such bank, and the worthless who started it had not capital enough to pay their rent and board, but sold the same to raise funds for that purpose, and to take themselves away. It is truly one of the wildest of the wilts, which have ever infested the country, and we caution our readers against touching any of the notes; they are absolutely worthless.

New Election Precinct.—The County Commissioners of this county, at their recent session, established a new election precinct, to be known by the name of Bright Precinct, taken on the corners of St. Joe, Cedar Creek, Perry and Washington townships. It contains all that part of St. Joe township lying west of the St. Joe River; sections 1, 12, 13, and 21 of the east side of Washington; sections 33, and 36 of the south east corner of Perry; and Parkes Reserve, section 31, and a fraction of 32 of the southwest corner of Cedar Creek. Jesse Coles, Esq. of Washington township is appointed inspector of elections for the new precinct. The elections will be held at the house of Mrs. Gullard.

This is a judicious arrangement, as the residents of the new precinct are so remote and so inconveniently situated from the usual place of holding elections in their several townships, that a large portion of them were usually prevented from voting. There are probably 100 voters in the precinct.

County Taxes.—The Commissioners have levied the following taxes for Allen County for the ensuing year:

Court-house Tax, 15 cents on the $100.

Bridge Tax, 10 "

Railroad & Co. Tax, 60 "

The School Tax is 10 cents on the $100, and 50 cents poll tax.

It has been determined to erect a Court-house, and a tax for that purpose is levied; but it is not designed to commence the structure until two years' tax has been collected, so as to have the money on hand to pay for the work as it progresses. A dangerous Counterfeiter on the Tenth.—A bill of the State Bank of Ohio, is in circulation, so well executed as to deceive the best judges. The only safety seems to be to refuse all notes of that denomination.

Swindle.—Bills have been put in circulation purporting to be on the Orleans Bank's "Cancel," in this state. The whole thing is an outrageous swindle, concocted by three scoundrels, named S. Cochran, who claims to be President; L. Scobey, Cashier, and Monroe, who represents the capitalist. There is no such bank, and the worthless who started it had not capital enough to pay their rent and board, but sold the same to raise funds for that purpose, and to take themselves away. It is truly one of the wildest of the wilts, which have ever infested the country, and we caution our readers against touching any of the notes; they are absolutely worthless.

Weekly State Sentinel.—This stirring democratic sheet has been again enlarged; it is now of truly mammoth dimensions, and the largest paper in the state. Under its present able management it is a good reliable paper, deserving the patronage of Democrats throughout the state, and is filled with a choice variety of matter, political, foreign, domestic, and miscellaneous.

Despatches from Calais state that on Saturday afternoon, a severe storm on the Mississippi side of the lake, through which the water level rises, has caused a great deal of flooding in the villages between the Ohio and the Mississippi, and is increasing the height of the levees, and is now threatening the villages on the Ohio side. About a thousand feet of the Central Rail. road was washed away.

To any Democrat wishing to take water, we sincerely conclude the State Sentinel, Bingham & Doughty, publishers, Indianapolis.

Canned Fruits.—These are getting to be considered among the necessities of life, and now almost all good housekeepers put up more or less fruits and vegetables for winter use. As the season for this is now near at hand, we cannot do readers a better service than by recommending to their notice a new and very superior jar for that purpose. It is made of the yellow stone or terra cotta, with a lid or stopper closed and made air-tight with cement, and has given universal satisfaction wherever introduced. It is sweet and clean, and perfectly proof against the action of acids, so that the fruit will never be injured, or discolored, as sometimes is the case with the metal cans.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 1858.

Congress and Convention.—When will it be?—We do not hear anything further concerning the Congressional Convention for this district, proposed to be held next Thursday. Our opinion is that it will not be held on that day. It certainly is not right that it is a matter of such uncertainty, and so few know anything about it. The Goshen Democrat agrees with us that the meeting is too short, and the convention ought to be held at a later period. We have not in view anything in the other or the other democratic paper in the district, and think it probable they have not received any notice of the proposed convention. We would recommend by all means to have it postponed a month or six weeks, and have ample notice given, that all may have a voice in selecting our candidate.

State.—We are under obligations to Hon. C. Clark our Representative in Congress, for valuable political documents.

Conventions adjourned on Monday evening last, after a long and laborious, but we presume, very useful session.

The Senate remained in extra session, on executive business, until Wednesday, when it adjourned.

Goshen Rights Abolished—Confirmed!—The confirmation of Gov. Jas. A. Wright, as Minister to Russia, was sent in to the Senate on Monday, and promptly confirmed by that body in extra session.

We hope the Governor's many warm republican friends who have lately exposed enough collects for his appointment, will find favor easier. Those of the professed democratic friends who hoped to make political capital out of his rejection, will not be tractate their disapprovement so much to heart. Gov. Wright has got a good appointment, in accordance with the current wishes of the Indiana democrats, and notwithstanding the many predictions to the contrary, Old Jeff has kept his faith, and sent his nomination to the Senate. This is right, a full right to be established. It was right that Wright should be appointed; he is the right man for the office, and Indiana had a right to expect his nomination. Buchanan did right in sending his name to the Senate, and that body has done right in confirming him. Wright is Minister to Prussia, and has a right to eat his corn dinners in Berlin for the next few years. It is all right together, and nobody has a right to complain.

Confederation of Mass., Bright and Fitch.—The Senate has finally confirmed the right of Mass., Bright and Fitch, Senators from this State, to their seats, by vote 30 to 23. The names of Mr. Douglass and his friend Broderick appear in the minority along with Hull, Fessenden, Hamlin, Hinman, Seward, Trumbull, Webb, Wilson, Durkee, and others of that stamp, in this daring attempt to trample on our state sovereignty, and eject our Senators legally elected by a majority of our Legislature, in perfect accordance with the well known wish of an overwhelming majority of our people. Mr. Douglass' actions of popular sovereignty appear to have won him a laurels and a seat in an epochal change within the past few months.

Eminent District—John D. Pettie was nominated by the republicans convention on Wednesday last, for re-election to Congress from the 11th or Indiana district. On the 24th instant he beat J. H. Harlan 135 to 94, by about 12 votes. Pettie has already had two terms, and his removal from the district for a third has stirred up considerable feeling among the friends of the other great men of that party in the district. It is doubtful whether he can secure his full party vote.

Mr. Godfrey, of Huntington, is spoken off very likely to be selected by the democrats. He is a young man of the talents, great popularity, and fair but want of mastering democracy. He will make a good race, and if elected will be an honor to its constituents.

Third District Congressional Nominations— Hon. James Hughes was unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress by the democratic convention in the 6th dist. He is a true democrat, has ably discharged his duty to his constituents, and will be re-elected.

A large number of disaffected, seceded anti-slavery friends, formerly acting with the democratic party, are now with the black republicans, and gather at the same time and nominated George W. Case. The design of this is not to defeat those of who are to be on his side, but to help him to be selected by the democrats. He is a young man of the talents, great popularity, and fair but want of mastering democracy. He will make a good race, and if elected will be an honor to its constituents.

Fourth District—John D. Pettie was nominated by the republicans convention on Wednesday last, for re-election to Congress from the 11th or Indiana district. On the 24th instant he beat J. H. Harlan 135 to 94, by about 12 votes.
